Description

This deal is SOLD OUT.

Experience the incredible culture of New Zealand as you cruise from Sydney and back on Cunard's Queen Elizabeth! Embark in Sydney, Australia's oldest and largest urban centre. As you cruise towards Wellington, enjoy the ship's facilities. Immerse yourself in endless entertainment, luxurious accommodation and an array of dining choices. Do something new and exciting, like painting or salsa. Join a fitness class or enjoy a glass of bubbly at the Gin & Fizz Lounge. After 6 pm, the curtain goes up on theatre shows, live comedy, concerts, recitals or even a flutter at the casino. Discover Wellington - perched in the hills surrounding a sparkling bay. Wellington's crispy weather is akin to that of San Francisco! Next, make your way to Tauranga, a port with abundant beaches, rolling white waters, hot mineral springs and kiwi orchards. Cruise towards Auckland and explore this beautiful city before heading to the Bay of Islands, one of New Zealand's favourite destinations. Bay of Islands shelters 150 islands and enchanting wetlands of birdlife, fish, seals, dolphins, and even whales! Take your time to discover this incredible area before cruising back to Sydney.

Itinerary

Day 1

Sydney (Embark)

Your cruise departs from the port at 7 PM today! The stunning harbour city, Sydney, is Australia's oldest and largest urban centre. Its fascinating modern history began in the year 1788 with the arrival of the 'First Fleet' of 760 British convicts. Gold mining and sheep breeding propelled Sydney's development, and today it's the largest port in the entire South Pacific. Mark Twain called it "the wonder of the world".

Day 5

Wellington, New Zealand

Arrive in Wellington at 8 AM and depart around 6 PM today! Perched in the hills surrounding a sparkling bay, Wellington's beautiful setting and the crispy weather is akin to that of San Francisco. The tiny white sails mingling with the cargo ships in the bay. Charming Edwardian architecture complements an impressive and contemporary skyline of concrete and glass, while the cultural side of the city is said to surpass even Auckland.

Day 7

Tauranga, New Zealand

Arrive at port in Tauranga at 7 AM and depart at 7 PM today! Tauranga is the largest and most populated port in the Bay of Plenty region. This is an appropriate name due to the abundant beaches, rolling white waters, hot mineral springs and even kiwi orchards. From here visit the thermal wonders of Rotorua, where geysers spout, mud boils and steam escapes through cracks in the pavement. Maori people have used the healing hot springs since the 14th century.

Day 8

Auckland, New Zealand

Arrive at port in Auckland at 7 AM and depart at 9 PM today! In a nation where stunning scenery is a given, this water wonderland 'City of Sails' sparkles in the sunlight, surrounded by more than 48 extinct volcanoes in the wild mountainous scenery. An undulating succession of bays and inlets stretches along the seemingly endless shores of spacious Auckland, with its downtown area featuring expansive farm-like parks.

Day 9

Bay of Islands, New Zealand

Arrive at port in Auckland at 8 AM and depart at 6 PM today! North of Auckland, along the narrow Northland peninsula, lies a shady 'cathedral' of some of the world's largest trees. These hulking specimens stand up to 170 feet tall, and are over 1,200 years old. The captivating Bay of Islands shelters 150 islands and enchanting wetlands of birdlife, fish, seals, dolphins, and even whales. No wonder it's one of New Zealand's favourite destinations.
