Itinerary

Day 1

Echuca Torrumbarry Weir Norris Bend

After arriving by coach from Echuca settle in as Emmylou departs Torrumbarry upstream, take the opportunity to savour an afternoon Devonshire tea while enjoying the picturesque views and acquainting yourself with fellow cruisers.

You may chat with the skipper in the wheelhouse to learn about PS Emmylou's river history, relax in your private cabin or relish a drink in the saloon during "Happy Hour" as the sun sets.

In the evening, the crew will have a riverside campfire ready for you to enjoy after a chef-prepared welcome dinner at Norris Bend. Keep an eye out for kangaroos, wombats, and birds as you bask in the river birds' evening chorus and the emerging stars.

Day 4

Layfield Lane Moama Wharf

Begin your day with a rewarding breakfast before embarking on a half-day land and river tour. Your tour explores the historic town of Echuca discovering little-known historic sites such as Hopwood's Punt and pontoon bridge, which was the first crossing of the river created by Echuca's founder Henry Hopwood.

You'll then experience the magic of the Murray River on our Eco Expedition boat, the Murray Explorer. After enjoying morning tea at the historic Echuca Wharf, you'll embark on a journey upriver, immersing yourself in the natural wonders of the Murray River.

As you cruise, you'll witness breathtaking scenery and diverse wildlife, all while learning about the rich history of the river from pre-European to early colonial riverboat days. Afterward, we'll make a stop at a remote sandy river beach where you'll enjoy a delicious lunch, surrounded by the beauty of this iconic Australian destination.

We then return to Emmylou for an afternoon tea service as you continue upriver towards mooring overnight at Moama Wharf.

Day 5

Echuca

This morning Emmylou cruises into the Port of Echuca, which was first built in the 1860s to support the booming river trade and was once the largest inland port in Australia.

You'll enjoy a half-day tour visiting two spectacular local art silos at Rochester and Colbinabbin, stopping for lunch at the local pub before visiting the fabulous Kyabram water tank. Returning to Echuca, explore the historical port precinct on a guided walking tour and visit the High Street shops and cafes.

Back aboard Emmylou, you can enjoy an afternoon Devonshire tea while cruising downstream. Happy Hour starts as the sun sets, where you can enjoy a drink in the saloon before arriving at Layfield Lane for a grand dinner on the riverbank with the signature Australian BBQ.

Day 6

Layfield Lane Deep Creek Marina

After a rewarding breakfast, you will embark on a half-day land and river tour that includes a visit to the Heritage Farm Museum. This unique attraction celebrates Australia's love for beer and boasts a wide array of farm machinery and vintage cars.

It's then time for an unforgettable Eco Expedition on the Murray Explorer, where you'll discover the enchanting beauty of the Murray River. We begin with a delightful morning tea at the historic Echuca Wharf before setting off upriver.

As you cruise, you'll witness breathtaking scenery and diverse wildlife, all while learning about the rich history of the river from pre-European to early colonial riverboat days. After a thrilling journey, we'll make a stop at a remote sandy river beach where you'll savor a delicious lunch amidst the stunning natural surroundings of this iconic Australian destination.

On your return to Emmylou you will visit Morrisons Riverside Winery for a quick tasting of their fabulous table and fortified wines before returning to Emmylou for an afternoon tea service as you continue downriver towards Deep Creek Marina.
