Then meander through the lush wine regions of the Clare Valley and Barossa, where you will meet the vignerons, growers, artisans and local characters (and, of course, indulge in plenty of tastings).

The deluxe, historic and highly awarded (and freshly renovated) country mansion, Kingsford Homestead, will be exclusively yours for the night, complete with your own private chef and house staff. Wake up and visit one of Australia's seafood meccas - the breath-taking Eyre Peninsula - and enjoy Oysters fresh from the ocean. They literally don't get fresher than that.

Every day a new discovery, every meal a distinct gastronomic adventure.

Culinary Highlights (the important bit)

Gourmet outback cuisine served with stunning scenery at The Prairie Hotel. Flinders Ranges Outback for a local breakfast, and then off to the ocean for lunch. Explore Australia's seafood capital Port Lincoln.

Indulge at Kingsford Homestead, recognised in Conde Nast Traveller's Hot List for 2013 and Fodors Top 10 all-inclusive hotels in the world - complete with its own master chef and house staff. Enjoy your own private touring, taking in the riesling producers of the Clare Valley, full-bodied shiraz of the Barossa, and the elegant cabernet-sauvignon of Coonawarra. And finally, a divine lunch on-farm at Mayura Station, showcasing Australia's finest Wagyu Beef with a masterclass run by the station's very own chef.

Now after all that - we're hungry!
